

Development Update – Manhattan House

Earlier in 2022 mezzanine funding was raised via a PDL for a development in Crowthorne, Berkshire. Manhattan House, previously used as commercial space, was to be converted into an apartment block. The project was due to reach Practical Completion in September, and these images are from the show flat. The properties are on the market with some already under offer.